ABOUT US

We believe in customer service and do our best to provide it at the highest level.

We have an online ordering system for those who like to order online and still have a dedicated customer service person for your account.

We provide help with order issues, questions, and product decisions.

You deal with a real local person, who will come to see you in your store.

We do not share or sell your information with other companies.

A locally founded, family-owned manufacturing/distributing company since 1971; transitioning to manufacturer sales representatives representing quality companies, to retailers of all sizes, since 1992.

Spirit Sales strives to provide its customers with the best possible products, the most comprehensive information on all the lines we represent, and to provide the most frank, honest, and informed opinions possible.

Spirit Sales mission is to be more than just a sales representative, we strive to be the retailers' most trusted resource.
